"OLD TIMES."

There's a beautiful song on the slumbrous air
That drifts through the valley of dream;
It comes from a clime where the roses were,
And a tuneful heart and bright brown hair.
That waved in the morning beams.

Soft eyes of azure and eyes of brown,
And snow-white foreheads are there;
A glimmering Cross and a glittering Crown,
A thorny bed and a couch of down,
Lost hopes and leaflets of prayer.

A breath of Spring in the breezy woods,
Sweet wafts from the quivering pines—
Blue violet eyes beneath green hoods,
A bubble of brooklets, a scent of buds,
Bird warbles and clambering vines.

A rosy wreath and a dimpled hand,
A ring and a slighted brow—
Three golden links of a broken band,
A tiny track in the snow white sand,
A tear and a sinless brow.

There's a tincture of grief in the beautiful song
That sobs on the slumbrous air.
And loneliness felt in the festive throng,
Sinks down on the soul as it trembles along
From a clime where the roses were.

We heard it first at the dawn of day,
And it mingled with matin chimes,
But years have distanced the beautiful lay
And its melody floweth from far away,
And we call it now Old Times.

The Doom of the Negro.

We copy the following sensible and timely remarks, on the above subject, from the Richmond (Virginia) Examiner and Enquirer:

None but the most depraved would urge a measure of retaliation merely for the sake of spite, and on the other hand, none but the most cowardly would hesitate to use the power of his arm for the protection of his person. And so it is when such occasions arise, mankind are compelled to obey the impulses of resentment, and employ the means which they suggest as mere measures of safety. The course of the negroes in this State in the late election arrayed as they were in solid phalanx against the interests, may the property, and even the lives of the white people, presents the most irrefragable proof that their hostility to us is instinctive and eradicable. Nothing, therefore, remains for us to do but to meet the issue they have thus thrust upon us and defend ourselves like men.

We of Virginia have a great and glorious country, a Commonwealth unsurpassed in the advantages of soil, climate and production, a population unequalled in all the elements that overcome difficulties and make a community rich and prosperous. Shall we permit these things to be lost to us forever? Shall we tamely submit to the subversion of all our prosperity and the hopes of the future by a handful of artful knaves, who use the brute force or numbers to overcome our intelligence, talent, and worth, by outwitting us with a horde of ignorant and stupid negroes?

Fortunately, the means of our defence are not those of violence and bloodshed, but the mere regulation of our domestic arrangements. As history presents no parallel of the black ingratitude which has characterized our domestics and employees, in turning upon us and falling into the train of wretches who are unprincipled as a ostiate white men in most cases, and the most depraved of their own race in others, whose appeals were based alone upon implacable hostility to the whites, so we should present the only instance of a people submitting to death and destruction without an effort for safety, if we permit our patience to await our impending execution. The negroes have shown us that "blood is thicker than water" with them, and we can only accept the issue and treat them with defensive severity, differing not indeed from the spirit, but only in the measure, from the treatment which our English friends used towards the Sepoys of India when white society demanded British severity. As we have said, we need not use the means of violence and bloodshed as our defence, but only the simple remedy of confining our selections of domestics to those only who are friendly disposed to wards us, whether black or white. Let us give employment to, and thereby support, those only who are not arrayed against our peace and welfare. The test of this may be easily made by counting those who belong to the secret societies and vote the "Hunnicat ticket" as our avowed enemies, and those who do neither as our friends. Let us discharge the former and employ the latter. If there be not enough of the latter at present, the deficiency will soon be supplied by white domestics, and, in the meantime, it is infinitely better for us our wives and children, to perform domestic duties and endure the res an gusts of domestic life rather than continue to nurse a nest of serpents who have shown not only the poison of their fangs, but their readiness to use them.

From the Lexington Observer & Reporter.

In his late address before the society calling itself "The Army of the Tennessee," General Sherman uttered the following sentence:

"Look to the South, and you who went with me through that land can best say if they, too, have not been fearfully punished. Mourning in every household, desolation written in broad characters across the whole face of their country, cities in ashes, and fields laid waste, their commerce gone, their system of labor annihilated and destroyed. Ruin, poverty and distress everywhere, and now petulance adding the very cap sheaf to their stack of misery; her proud men begging for pardon and appealing for permission to raise food for their children, her five millions of slaves free and their value lost to their former masters forever. How any Southern gentleman, with these facts, plain and palpable everywhere staring him in the face and recorded forever in the book of history, can still boast of his 'Lost Cause' or speak of it in language other than of shame and sorrow, passes my understanding, and instead of being revived, I know that their lost cause will sink deeper and deeper into infamy as time more keenly probes its hidden mysteries and reveals them to the light of day."

This insult to a foe, whose prowess he had often felt, whose homes he had destroyed and whose cities he had burnt, will only tarnish his laurels. How "these facts"—namely, desolation, cities in ashes, fields laid waste, commerce gone, ruin, poverty, distress—can cause shame in the sufferer we are at a loss to conceive. We can understand that the ruthless producer of these miseries, unless wholly heartless, might feel a deep and ineradicable blush of shame, forever mantling his face. "Infamy" is a word easily spoken. But he who utters it of Lee and Johnston and Hampton and their comrades among the living, and of Jackson and Johnston and Stuart and Ashby and the stainless heroes among the dead, but writes it in indelible characters across his own brow, where it will burn as enduringly as the mark of Cain. The cause to which such men gave their services and their lives is beyond the abuse of the burner of Atlanta, the desolator of Georgia, the sacker of Columbia. This General has given a new word to our language; "Shermanized" will remain at once a monument to his cruelty and an expressive description of savage ferocity in war.

We saw some of these "foot rints" of which mention was made. We saw burning houses, from which aged men, feeble women, and helpless children—sometimes sucklings—had been driven in their thin night garments out into a winter night. We have seen black smoke rising in numerous columns, witnesses to heaven of the ferocity of this commander and his followers. Rape and rapine, fire and sword, marked the track of his army. Age, sex, virtue, infancy; disease formed no protection—nay, only invited insults and outrages, which were without danger.

Jewelry was torn from bleeding ears or wrenched from weak fingers. Silver and gold, stolen by brave bummers, were at once the trophies and spoils of these victories over the weak and helpless. To-day, many a chimney and heap of ashes stand sentinel over the causeless cruelty of this commander, who talks of infamy.

When a full history of the war is written, when the dreadful nights of Columbia's sacking is fully revealed, then will history and posterity utter their judgment and award infamy to him, to whom it belongs. Before that tribunal we are willing that the "Lost Cause" and its followers shall be tried—before the same august tribunal we confidently arraign this commander.

A negro was so convinced of the lowliness of his race that he was indifferent as to a future state, believing that "they'll make niggers work eben in Heaven." A clergyman tried to argue him out of his opinion by representing this not to be the case, as there was no work for him nor any one else to do. His answer was, "you gwo way, massa; I know better. If der's no oder work for cullud pussons, ud dar dey'll make em shud de clouds along!"

The Next Electoral College.

A correspondent requests us to give the States and their representation in the next Electoral College for the choice of President and Vice-president. The number of States will be twenty-seven. The Electoral votes are as follows:

California	5
Connecticut	5
Delaware	3
Kentucky	11
Maryland	7
New Jersey	7
New York	33
Pennsylvania	26
Illinois	13
Indiana	13
Iowa	3
Kansas	3
Maine	7
Massachusetts	12
Michigan	12
Minnesota	4
Missouri	11
Nevada	3
New Hampshire	5
Ohio	21
Oregon	3
Rhode Island	4
Tennessee	10
Vermont	5
West Virginia	5
Wisconsin	8
Nebraska	3
Total	246

The recent elections have foreshadowed conclusively to our minds that at the Presidential election the Democracy will carry the States named as follows:

Maine, 7; Connecticut, 6; New Hampshire, 5; New York, 33; New Jersey, 7; Pennsylvania, 26; Delaware, 3; Maryland, 7; Kentucky, 11; Missouri, 11; Indiana, 13; Illinois, 13; Ohio, 21; California, 5; Oregon, 3; Nevada, 3; Wisconsin, 8—Total, 184.

The Radicals may receive a majority in all the following States, but we consider several as doubtful for them:

Iowa, 3; Kansas, 3; Massachusetts, 12; Michigan, 8; Minnesota, 4; Rhode Island, 4; Tennessee, 10; Vermont, 5; West Virginia, 5; Nebraska, 3—Total, 62.

According to this estimate the Democratic candidates will have a majority of 125 votes in the College.

"DEMOCRAT."—The Christmas Number of this unrivalled magazine is received, and is really a gem. Its engravings and stories are excellent, its "Christmas Dinner," which illustrated, looks good enough to eat, and is accompanied with proper receipts for cooking it.

We notice several additions, in this number, of interest to ladies. One of which is the enlargement of the already complete Fashion Department and of large page illustrations of bonnets, cloaks, and children's costumes. The pattern sheet is a very valuable one, being printed on both sides. A feature of the fashions is originality, and, therefore, of special value to American ladies, who want practical designs and information.

We sincerely think the best investment a man can make his wife, just now, would be a subscription to this useful and beautiful Monthly. It is even possible to obtain it for nothing, and a valuable present in addition, the particulars of which can be had by purchasing a number, or sending for a circular. Subscription price, $3 yearly. Address, W. Jennings Demorest, 473 Broadway, New York.

A promising disciple of Josh Billings and A. Head, in East Feliciana, sends the following essay to the Clinton Democrat:

The goat is a numerous animal. He is found in many parts of the inhabitable globe, and also in East Feliciana. He is four footed, and a hen, and never shaves. He lets his beard grow. He can raise up on his hind feet and let himself down easy. He don't mind fences. He can reach over and nibble shrubbery. He butts—he chews rapid. His tail points upward, and a cow's. He is exclusive—he belongs to the hairy-stock race. He don't miscegenate. He wears his summer clothes all winter. He never squanders fractional currency. He never registered. He don't seem to want to. He never takes in washing. He can't cipher. He don't care for worms. He never slobbers. He is thrifty. He stamps. I like a goat. For why? I wears a goatee.

As this is the season when sore throat is prevalent, we publish the following for the benefit of sufferers: Dissolve a small piece of alum in sage tea, then mix a little honey, or two drams of oak bark in six ounces of boiling water. Use the liquid after it becomes cold.

Colonel Alt Allen, the Treasurer of Kentucky, has adjusted the claims of the State with the authorities at Washington for expenditures for war purposes, and obtained a considerable sum of money.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. R. A. Alexander, of Woodburn, is seriously ill. His physicians entertain the gravest apprehensions unless a favorable change takes place speedily.—Lexington Gazette.

In capturing three of the six convicts who escaped from a guard near the penitentiary on Monday evening, several shots were exchanged between the fleeing convicts and pursuing guards, resulting in the wounding of one of the convicts. Two of the escaped convicts crossed the river at the rifle just below Leestown, the third one remained on the north side of the river, and most probably stole a horse missed the following morning by Mr. James Church, living in the vicinity of where he was last seen.—Frankfort Yeoman, 21st.

Mr. Duncan, of Louisville, the young man who was expelled from Eminence College some months ago, and who, in revenge, assaulted President Giltner, of that institution, while getting upon the cars in Louisville, badly cutting his face, and against whom a suit was brought by the President on the charge of assault and battery, laying his damages at $10,000, came into court a few days since and confessed judgment to that amount, but Mr. Giltner very generously dismissed the case, requiring Young Duncan only to pay the costs of the suit which will be about $1,000.—Judges Stites and Bullitt were the counsel for plaintiff.—1b.

Major John R. Viley was standing, last Saturday, in the store of Warfield & Co., leaning upon the railing which encloses its cellar door, when from some cause the railing flew up, and he fell backwards into the cellar, breaking his right arm at the wrist, and severely bruising his head and body. Both bones of the arm are very badly broken just above, or at the wrist. He fell with such force as to break the bone and force it through his flesh, shirt, and coat sleeve. He is a very heavy man and it is remarkable that the fall did not cause instant death.—Lexington Obs. & Rep., 20th.

The Montgomery (Alabama) "Reconstruction" Convention has adopted a resolution, by a vote of 57 to 33, to change the names of all new counties that were named in glorification of those who participated on the Confederate side in the late war. A resolution was also introduced to change the name of Colbert county to Brownlow, which was tabled by a vote of 76 against 12.

Eighty-three representative districts in Kansas elect twenty-two Democrats, and the remainder Radicals and Independents. Forty counties give the following result: For negro suffrage, 7,591; against it, 16,114; for female suffrage, 6,670; against, 16,362; for disfranchising disloyalists, 11,390; against, 10,268.

Some close observer says that young ladies who are accustomed to read newspapers are sure to possess winning ways, birdlike dispositions, have cultivated minds, never commit suicide, nor sing "No one to love"; are free from gossiping, always select good husbands, and invariably make the sweetest and best wives, and never apply for a divorce.

An old Democrat in Concord, New Hampshire, who died recently, gave strict orders before his decease that none but Democrats should officiate as pall-bearers at his funeral, and that no minister who meddled with politics should conduct religious services over his remains. His wishes were strictly observed by his family.

THE CYNTHIANA NEWS

CYNTHIANA, KY.

THURSDAY, : : : - Nov. 28, 1867.

A. J. MOREY, Editor.

There is nothing that indicates more clearly the cultivation, refinement and civilization of a people, than their care for its dead. Go where you will and find a lovely cemetery, blooming with roses and fragrant with flowers, showing in every thing care and watchfulness over the sleeping dead, and you feel for that people an admiration and respect, you could not feel for that people who leave their dead to moulder and decay in a briar patch, neglected and without care; a place so dreary, that the contemplation of death with such a resting place for the body is rendered more terrible and revolting.

We have been led to these reflections by a recent inspection of our own burial ground, with its capacity for future use, and also the sad and dreary look of the small burial places around and near the town, grown up as they are, and overrun with briars and weeds.

We are impressed with the belief that our citizens feel the necessity of at once taking steps to procure for this city and the county, a burial ground, and one too, of sufficient capacity to last for all time to come. In order to do this properly, there should be not less than from fifty to one hundred acres of ground; a house should be put on it for a sexton; the ground laid off by a competent person, so as to make it a lovely spot; a resort for the country.

From the well known liberality of our citizens, it will not be difficult, with a joint stock association, to raise from fifteen to twenty thousand dollars to carry out this proposition.

We hope and trust our citizens will make an early application to the Legislature for a charter; at once organize under it, so as to commence setting out trees and shrubbery in the spring.

We feel assured that when this is accomplished, our burial ground in town will at once be emptied of its sleeping dead, and they placed in a more attractive spot; and the county, as they will do, come here to bury. We shall refer to this matter more at length, in a future article.

Legal Advertising.

The press of the State is taking a decided and earnest position on this subject of vast importance to every class of citizens, and will urge the Legislature to so modify laws on the subject as to require publications of this character to be inserted in county newspapers. There is no State in the Union where so little legal publication is done through newspapers, and greatly too to the injury of all classes. Heretofore the effort to pass a law by Legislature requiring the advertisement of certain legal notices in newspapers has been defeated by very close votes. A concert of action on the part of the members of the press will no doubt secure such an enactment as demanded by the Legislature which assembles in a few days. The suggestion of the Lexington Observer & Reporter that our Frankfort contemporaries agree upon some day, early in the ensuing session, upon which a meeting of the editors of the State may be held at Frankfort to bring this matter before the Legislature is a good one we hope it will be acted upon. There was a call for a meeting of editors and publishers at Frankfort last winter to bring this subject before the members of the Legislature, but the attendance was very small. In case another call is issued every press in the State should be represented.

It is of course remembered that some weeks ago the negroes occupying Taylor's farm at Hampton, Virginia, resisted and drove off the officers of the U. States who attempted under United States authority to remove them. Everybody supposed that a large force would at once be sent, and that the work of removal would be promptly done, but we see it stated that the negroes still occupy the field of victory. The government earned a world-wide renown by pursuing white rebels for four years and subduing them, but there seems to be danger of its quailing before black ones.

BASE BALL.

On Saturday evening last, we were a gratified witness, with hundreds of other spectators consisting of both ladies and gentlemen, of a very spirited and brilliant match game of Base Ball, between the Waverly B. B. C. of Paris, and the Star B. B. C. of this city. The Waverly's were the challengers to the contest, and after witnessing their splendid playing, and seeing their skill and dexterity, we felt they were skillful champions, and it was not presumption in them to throw down the gauntlet and offer battle. The Waverly Club was received and entertained by the Star's at the Rankin House, and immediately before proceeding to the grounds for play, were enlivened by the sweetest and most inspiring strains of the Harrison Band. The game was called at 1:12 o'clock; Prof. Theis, of the Pythian B. B. C. of Millersburg, acting as Umpire, and he commended himself to all parties by his urbane bearing and prompt decisions. Jas. Short, of the Waverly, acting as scorer for the Waverly's, and Reed B. Martin, President of the Licking B. B. C. of this city, on behalf of the Star's. He having kindly consented to act for the Star's upon their request. When time was called, (in the language of the ring,) both parties came to the scratch, looking well. Capt. Carpenter, of the Star's, won the choice of the ground, and took the field. The game was now commenced, and was hard and closely contested throughout. The Waverly's in their bright and tasty dress, looking like a company of brilliant Zouaves, while the Star's with their black pants, white shirts and slouches, looked like the Morgan ranger's deployed for skirmishing.

Victory was declared by the Umpire as belonging to the Star's at nightfall. The score standing Star 69, Waverly 66. The trophies of victory were presented by the Captain of the Waverly to the Star's, and three loud, long, hearty cheers were given by the Waverly Club, to Capt. Carpenter, of the Star Club, Umpire, and to the Scorer's. These courtesies were reciprocated by the Star's, who made the welkin ring with their shouts of good feeling and victory, and all dispersed in good humor and the best of feeling. We append the result of the game:

The Greeting of the States—Over 50,000 Participants.

The Democratic jubilee at Cincinnati, Covington, and Newport, last Saturday night, over the recent glorious Democratic victories was a magnificent affair. More than fifty thousand people participated in making it the grandest jubilee of the age. The pyrotechnic display was grand. Speeches were made from stands erected in different parts of the cities. Mr. Theo. Cook was the President, with the usual number of other officers. Judge Thurman, after speaking on the Cincinnati side was taken to Newport, where he addressed a very large crowd.

The official vote of the State of New Jersey at the recent election is as follows:

Democrat	67,468
Radical	51,114
Democratic majority	16,354

Last year the Radical majority was 1,491, and two years ago it was 2,789 on Governor.

The Fayette County Democratic Club have declared in favor of Geo. H. Pendleton for President, in the following resolution, presented by Dr. D. L. Price, last Saturday night:

"Resolved That George H. Pendleton, of Ohio, is the choice of this club for the next President of the United States, and we believe we only express the sentiments of the Democracy of Kentucky, when we say that he is their choice also."

STATE ITEMS.

The Kentucky Legislature will assemble at Frankfort next Monday.

An animal supposed to be a panther has recently been seen in the section of country between Stamping Ground and Owenton. It passed through the yard of Mr. Ferrel at night, and was seen by several gentlemen. It was running at the time and making a noise similar to that made by a chicken when choked. By moonlight it appeared to be the size of a large dog, and was of a brown color. It was subsequently seen by Mr. Jas. Redding, on his farm, on "inner's run. He gives about the same description of it as is given above. His dogs refused to run it. On Thursday last Mr. Joba house, Josiah Roberts and several other young gentlemen, accompanied by a pack of fox hounds, started on the trail of the strange visitor. They were unable to come up with it. One claw of the animal, as measured by foot prints left in the mud, it was one and a quarter inches in length.

[Georgetown Times, 20th.] William Boyd and wife, of Floyd county, are said to be the oldest couple in this State, he being 119 and his wife 107 years of age. His oldest son is ninety years of age. Mr. Boyd went seven miles to his voting precinct, at the late election, to vote.

Frank Carrigan killed a large wild cat, in the vicinity of Kaywick, a few days since. In answer to an inquiry on the subject, we would state that reward fixed by law for the killing of a wild cat is $1.50; red fox, $2; and grey fox $1.—Lebanon Clarion.

INFORMATION WANTED. My widowed daughter, Eliza Ray, was sent North by Gen. Sherman in his raid through Georgia, from her home near Marietta, with her five children. Any information of her whereabouts will be thankfully received. Address

REV. ELLAH ROBER, Summerfield, Ala.

[Papers will please copy the above for the benefit of a worthy poor man who would pay their bills if he was able.]

A lady at the White Mountains finding, to her grief and amazement, that her son, aged four years, had become quite a proficient in swearing, wrote to his father on the subject. The latter, therefore, sent a very good and sensible letter to the little boy, telling him that he had heard from a little bird that his boy had used bad language, and warning him of the consequences. When the four-year old heard the letter read, his immediate comment was, "Well, I think the little bird was a d-d fool."

The Minnesota Gazette, a radical organ, boasts that the Southern whites "have got to swallow the nigger." The fear is that the nigger will swallow the white man.

Raphael Semms, the commander of the famous Confederate cruiser, Alabama, lectured in Nashville, last Tuesday and Wednesday. His subject was: "the equipment of the Alabama as a Confederate cruiser, viewed in the light of the laws of nations and American precedents."

George H. Pendleton, of Ohio, is undoubtedly the first choice of the Western Democracy. Nearly every paper in Kentucky, and many in Tennessee and Indiana have expressed a preference for him.

The Supreme Court of Missouri has decided that the "test oath," in that State, is unconstitutional.

A jury in Henderson, last week, fined a negro $50 and thirty days imprisonment for slapping a white boy off the sidewalk—served him right.

Forney speaks of the "radical party" as "a party born of convulsions." If it is the offspring of one convulsion, it is the parent of several.

The Chicago Tribune says that the Democrats seem greatly afraid that the radicals may make a mistake in their nomination for the Presidency. We care not how many or how few mistakes they may make. The country will not make the mistake of electing their candidate, no matter who he may be.

34,112 prizes	$57,057
Whole Tickets	1 dollar
Certificates of wholes cost	$14.00
" 20 Halves	7.50
" 20 Quarters	3.75

A favorite manner of purchasing tickets, in the combination or three number schemes, is by the package, which contains all the numbers from 1 to 78, that are placed in the wheel, thus insuring the certainty of having all the numbers drawn out, which are the prizes. We send certificates of packages of tickets for about one half of the cost of the same.

A package of 20 whole tickets at $1 each is $20.00. And send certificate of same for 14.00. The $12 remaining due we deduct from the prizes drawn in the package.

The Small Fry schemes draw every Tuesday and Saturday—Capital prize $5,000. Tickets $1. Certificates of package of whole $14. If you have been unlucky, give it another trial, and the next time the lucky number may fall to your lot. Address all orders for tickets to L. D. CROXINGER & CO., Box 673, Covington, Ky.

P. S. Circulars giving a full explanation of scheme, &c., sent free by addressing as above. Sept 12-15

Prizes amounting to $230,650. 32,000 Numbers and 788 Prizes.

Tickets $12, Halves 6, Quarters $4. PLAN OF THE LOTTERY.

The numbers from 1 to 32,000, printed on separate slips of paper, are encircled with small tin tubes, and placed in one wheel. The prizes, of which there are 788, varying as above, from $50,000 to $50, are similarly printed on separate slips, encircled and placed in another wheel. The wheels are then revolved, and a number is drawn from the wheel of numbers, and at the same time a prize is drawn from the other wheel. The number and prize drawn out are opened and exhibited to the audience, and registered, the prize being placed against the number drawn. This operation is repeated until all the prizes are drawn out.

The above magnificent single number Lottery will be drawn in public, in Covington, Ky., by sworn Commissioners, at one o'clock, p. m., at the corner of 4th and Scott streets. The Kentucky State Lotteries are no Gift Enterprises, but responsible money lotteries, that have been conducted for the past thirty years, and are drawn under the authority of a charter from the State, and bonds are given for the payment of all prizes. The drawings are published in the New York Herald and the Cincinnati Commercial.

The above scheme will be drawn the middle and last of each month during 1867 and 1868.

Circulars of Lotteries, drawing daily sent by application to the managers.

POLAND MAGIC BILIIOUS POWDERS!!!

THIS PREPARATION IS THE DISCOVERY of the Rev. J. W. Poland, formerly pastor of the Baptist Church in Goffstown, N. H., and a man deeply beloved by that denomination throughout New England. He was obliged to leave the pulpit and study medicine to save his own life, and his Magic Powders are one of the most wonderful discoveries of modern times. It is the great Liver and Biliary remedy, which completely throws in the shade all other discoveries in medicine; and it affords him that gratification that they receive the unanimous approbation of all who have tested them. The Magic Biliious Powders are a positive cure for Liver Complaint, in its most aggravated form, and an immediate corrector of all Biliary Derangements. Excellent for headache, constipation, pimples, blotches, a sallow skin, drowsiness, dizziness, heartburn, palpitation, and almost wonderful cure and remedy for Fever and Ague. [We advise all who are troubled with this fearful malady to always keep the Powders on hand for immediate use.] Here are a few important particulars:

1st.—They are the Great Specific for all Biliary Affections.

2d.—They are the only known remedy that will cure Liver Complaint.

3d.—They are the only known remedy that will cure Constipation.

4th.—The Powders are so thorough in their operation that one package will be all that the majority of those using them will require to effect a cure.

5th.—They are a mild and pleasant yet the most effectual cathartic known.

6th.—They are the cheapest and best medicine extant, as they can be sent by mail to any part of the world for the price, 50 cents.

Circulars, containing certificates, information, &c., sent to any part of the world free of charge.

Sold by all druggists, or by mail on application to C. G. CLARK & CO., General Agents, New Haven, Conn. Price 50 cents per box. Mar 21-ly.

If you want the best boot in the United States, call at J. H. Shawhan's.

This Thanksgiving Day. Numerous turkeys disappear to-day.

We notice that the plasterers are at work on the new bank building in this city. We understand from Mr. Withers, the polite Cashier, that he expects it will be completed by the first of January.

The nicest varieties of hats and caps, and the best boots and shoes are kept J. H. Shawhan.

Who Lost His Spectacles? During the term of Circuit Court some person left a pair of silver spectacles on a table in the court room. The owner can obtain them from Squire Webb; the jailer, by paying for this notice.

LIBERAL.—We are informed that citizens, in connection with the Catholic Church, of this city, contributed $100 cash and about the same amount in provisions to the Sisters of Charity in Covington.

We acknowledge the receipt of an engraved stencil plate from the house of Messrs. Wright & Denison, No. 136 West Fourth street, Cincinnati, Ohio, with our name for the purpose of marking linen. Mr. Charles Reikel is their agent in this place, and will receive all orders in their line. Every person should have a plate.

On Wednesday last, about 2 o'clock, P. M. the roof of Messrs. Shannon & Turley's Tin shop was discovered to be on fire, it was extinguished however, with but little loss to the firm.

SEWING MACHINES.—Any person in want of a first-class sewing machine would do well to call on Mrs. Mary E. Hoffman, who is the agent at this place for the Grover and Baker Machine. For durability and neatness it cannot be surpassed. Residence on Pleasant between Main and Walnut streets.

FIRE—OPEN FRONT STOVE.—REDDY, PATENT.—Is one of the latest and best improvements in open front stoves, and it combines all the modern improvement of the present day and it is both handsome and durable; and requires but half the fuel of the common grate, and gives more heat. Call and see them, and you will see something nice, also all kinds of cooking and heating stoves and grates with Tin Ware and House Furnishing goods of every description. Call and see our carpet stretcher one of the best things in use.—For Sale by H. S. Shannon & Co.

Go to J. H. Shawhan's if you want any clothing, where you will find the largest and best assortment of clothing ever brought to Cynthiana.

FEMALE HORSE THIEVES.—On the 7th inst. a red roan mare and bay mare were stolen from the premises of Col. Thomas T. Garnett, five miles north of the city on the railroad. Sarah Wright, aged about forty years, and her daughter Mary, about seventeen years, were arrested near Irvine, in Estlin county, Ky., and taken to Richmond, Ky., where they had a hearing before Esquire Williams, who held them in the sum of $100, in default of bail they were placed in the hands of Mr. Biggerstaff, sheriff of Madison county, who brought them to this city on Wednesday evening of last week, and handed them over to the tender mercies of Jailer Webb for safe keeping. They had prior to their arrest, disposed of one of the animals, receiving the money for the sum of fifty dollars, which was recovered by the purchaser. The women are rather intelligent, and claim to have been raised in the lower part of this county.

Call at C. T. Dellinger's and save time and money by buying of him.

A difficulty occurred in Covington on Saturday last between A. J. Morey, and O. H. Burbridge, brother of Gen. S. Burbridge, which resulted in the former being shot by the latter, inflicting a painful though not dangerous wound. Burbridge was subsequently arrested and held to bail in the sum of one thousand dollars.

A Nice Lot of Hogs.—Mr. Robert Smith, of Buena Vista, delivered in the city a lot of twenty-one head of hogs last Monday, the average weight of which was 340 pounds. Two of them were last March pigs. Their mother weighed 540 pounds. They sold at $6.30 per hundred. Mr. Smith is in his 73d year, and walked from his home, a distance of over eight miles, through the rain and mud, in bringing them to market, without any apparent fatigue.

You will find the largest and best assortment of cloths, cassimers and vestings, at J. H. Shawhan's.

J. H. Carter says he is selling groceries at Cincinnati prices, and invites the public generally to give him a call before purchasing elsewhere.

MARRIAGES.

WARNOCK-WILSON.—On last Wednesday Nov. 20th 1867. Mr. J. R. Warnock, of this city, to Miss Jose M. Wilson of Columbia, Boone County Mo.

STURGER-SEXTON.—At the Clerk's office in this city, on the 26th inst. by the Rev. Mr. Case. Mr. J. R. Sturger to Miss Louisa Sexton.

Special Notices.

The Truth About Dyspepsia.
Whoever says that dyspepsia is incurable, tells a—that is to say, makes an egregious mistake. More than ten thousand aggravated cases have been cured by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, while the number that have been prevented from coming to a head, by the same means, is incalculable. In this season of the year, when the appetite is sometimes too vigorous for the comfort and safety of the stomach, indigestion is most prevalent and most distressing. Is the appetite to be balked to accommodate the digestive organs? Not so; for then the frame would lack its due proportion of nutriment. The thing to be done is to strengthen the stomach, tone the liver, and put the bowels in perfect order. Nothing will do this so effectually, so rapidly, so quietly, so pleasantly, as Hostetter's Bitters. This potent preparation cleans and balances the system, and clothes it, as it were, with defensive armor. Chronic dyspepsia, liver complaint, and fever and ague are never known to attack those who are wise enough to invoke the aid of this great preventive. Oct 28-29

A CARD TO INVALIDS.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of nervous weakness, early decay, diseases of the urinary and seminal organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been cured by this noble remedy. Promptly by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, free of charge. Address, JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City. May 16-ly

The friends and patrons will please accept the sincere thanks of the proprietors of the Stone Front for their kind and liberal patronage; with the full assurance to those who will favor us with a call, that prices and quality will always be warranted as low as the lowest, and the best of attention given. LYON'S PERIO U L

DROPS!

The Great Female Remedy for Irregularities!!!

I HAVE tested these Drops in my own practice, over ten years, and do not hesitate to say, that nothing has yet been developed by medical research, but a so powerfully, positively and harmlessly, in cases of female irregularity, as does this medicine. In all recent cases, it never fails, while thousands who have been long sufferers, are indebted to it for the boon of health to-day.

Although so powerful and positive, they perfectly harmless, and may be used at all times, except when specially forbidden in the directions.

They have been extensively employed by eminent physicians in France and England, as well as in my own practice, over ten years, and I have yet to hear of the first instance of failure. I could give you testimonials of their efficacy from ladies all over the Northern and North Western States, were they not in their nature, private. Over 100,000 bottles have been sold the last year, and I hope and trust as many sufferers have been benefited. I am well aware that a remedy so potent to remove all obstructions, may be used for a bad purpose, but trust that when one bottle is thus used, ten may fall into the hands of really needy sufferers.

To all who suffer from any irregularity: painful, difficult, excessive, offensive or obstructed menstruation, Leucorrhoea, or the train of diseases that follow, I would say, try a bottle of Dr. Lyon's French Periodical Drops. Being a fluid preparation, their action is more direct and positive than any pills or powders. Explicit directions, bearing my facsimile, accompany each bottle.

They may be obtained of nearly every druggist in the country, or by enclosing the price to C. G. Clark & Co., New Haven, Ct., General Agents for the United States in Canada.

DR. JOHN L. LYON.

Practicing Physician, New Haven, Ct.
 Price $1.50 per Bottle. Mar 28-ly

Notice.
